DETAILED ACTION

Receipt is acknowledged of applicant's Response to Notice Missing Part filed 04/18/01, Information Disclosure Statement filed 12/27/00, Preliminary Amendment A filed 12/27/00, Amendment B filed 10/16/01, and Change of Address filed 10/16/01.

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321© may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1, 2, 5, 6, 8-13 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-8 of U.S. Patent No. 6,228,396 B1.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the patent and the instant application are claiming common subject matter.

Art Unit: 1615

Claims 3, 4, and 7 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting to the extent that they read on the rejected base claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 U.S.C. § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371© of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

Kelm teaches a pharmaceutical dosage form for colonic delivery comprising therapeutically active agents incorporated into hard or soft capsule that is coated with polymer coating material (column 8, lines 62 through column 10, lines 1-67). The active agents are those that release in the colon for systemic absorption (column 6, lines 18 through column 7, lines 1-15). The preferred coating material is disclosed in column 11, lines 1-56, wherein the coating is dissolved at pH from about 5 to about 5.5, and the thickness of the coating layer is about 120 to 350 μm (id).

Claim Rejections - 35 U.S.C. § 103

Art Unit: 1615

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kelm.

Kelm is relied upon for the reasons stated above. In the case that the applicant can overcome the above 102(e) rejection, the examiner relies on the following 103(a) rejection. It would have been obvious to one of the ordinary skill in the art to, by routine experimentation modify Kelm's composition. The reasons for this modification is to obtain a desirable pharmaceutical oral dosage form that is suitable for colonic delivery to treat colonic diseases.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 10/16/01 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The examiner maintains the original 103(a) rejection. The rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kelm et al. US 5,686,105 has been withdrawn.

Applicant argues that the starch capsule disclosed in Kelm is only entitled to the filing date of May 17, 1995, and therefore, Kelm cannot be cited as a reference to hold claims 1-13 as obvious under 35 U.S.C. §103. Contrary to the applicant's argument, Kelm is CIP of SN 138,859 filed 10/19/93, now USPN 5,514,663 (Mandel et al.). Mandel on column 8, lines 15-23 teaches hard gelatin capsule. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to, by routine experimentation modify hard gelatin capsule using starch capsule. The reasons for this modification is to obtain an oral capsule that is suitable for colonic delivery.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
